All Roads Lead to Rome

Only land service

Rome – Assisi – Cortona – Siena – Monteriggioni – Montepulciano – Pienza – Montalcino - San Gimignano - Volterra - Monteriggioni - Lucca - Pisa

DURATION: 3 days
DEPARTURES: All year every day
MINIMUM PARTICIPANTS: 4 persons

Day 1: Rome – Orvieto – Cortona – Siena

Early morning departure from Rome to Orvieto - the mystic town of Saint Francis still surrounded by ancient walls. Explore at your own leisure the tiny town; admire the Basilica of Saint Francis with its early Renaissance masterpieces by Giotto and Cimabue. Proceed to Cortona, a medieval town in the main cultural and artistic center of the Val di Chiana. Continue to Siena, the beautiful medieval city famous for the Palio. Depart for the hotel.

Day 2: Montepulciano – Pienza – Montalcino – San Gimignano

Start in Montepulciano, an ancient village full of medieval and Renaissance buildings, famous for the “Nobile” wine di Montepulciano. Continue to Pienza, build by Pope Pio II, well-known for its pecorino cheese and Montalcino known in the world for its famous wine, “Brunello”, here enjoy a relaxing wine tasting in the farmhouse “Paradiso di Frassina”, famous for the Mozart vineyards. Then you will stop in San Gimignano that was founded as a small village in the 3rd century BC by the Etruscans and it has managed to conserve fourteen towers of varying height which have become its international symbol. Depart for the hotel.

Day 3: Volterra – Pisa – Lucca

Start a full day excursion with a visit to Volterra, the reminiscent old town famous for its mining of Alabaster, the medieval Cathedral and the beautiful Palazzo dei Priori. Proceed to Pisa, known worldwide for its leaning tower (the bell tower of the city’s cathedral); the city is also home of the University of Pisa, which has a history going back to the 12th century. Continue to Lucca, famous for its intact Renaissance-era city walls; it was founded by the Etruscans and became a Roman colony. The rectangular grid of its historical center preserves the Roman street plan, and the Piazza San Michele occupies the site of the ancient forum and traces of the amphitheater can still be seen in the Piazza dell’Anfiteatro. Depart for the hotel. End of services.
