ADVENTURE

Québec

For some it's the sheer expanse of unbridled nature and its ocean of colours, for others it's the fascinating melting pot of cultures that is Eastern Canada. Let us take you away on a journey of unparalleled natural beauty, cities offering the best of North American and European flair mixed with genuine Canadian generosity and a dash of Inuit and First Nation folklore.

❖ Your Journey

Day 1: Vieux-Québec Arrive in Quebec City. Check-in to Hotel Port Royal.

Day 2: Québec Journey north into the mountain where you will find Zoo Sauvage de Saint-Felicien. The park is a four-season marvel with abundant wildlife, 75 species, in 1200 acres of flora and fauna. Early evening arrival at Mahikan Park. Here you will "sleep with the wolves", arctic wolves and grey wolves. In the heart of the wolf watching park, several different accommodations in the wild are available to you for an unforgettable face to face. You watch the packs from your window, unless it is the other way around! You fall asleep lulled by the screams of the wolves.

Day 3: Saguenay Fjord In the morning you will start with a guided tour of the wolf packs. Your journey continues around Lac Saint-Jean down to the Saguenay River where you will find Cap Jaseux Adventure Park. Zip along the forest canopy before retiring into your "Suspended Sphere". High in the trees, built away from other accommodation units on the site, the tranquility and privacy are assured to visitors while offering a breathtaking view of the Saguenay Fjord.

Day 4: Of sea and land Using a sea kayak, you will be amazed by the breathtaking and natural beauty of the majestic Saguenay Fjord. Simply paddling alongside the immense steep cliffs, or simply taking a well-deserved break, you may have the opportunity to see marine birds, seals, Beluga whales or even Minke whales. After the thrill of sea kayaking, it is time to sit back and let someone else do the driving; "All aboard" as the Train de Charlevoix awaits. Journey to wide open spaces, from curling wave crests to rocky mountain faces. Travelling along the St. Lawrence River between lush, verdant mountains and cresting waves, the train is a singular – yet irresistible – way of discovering the region. Meander through seven coastal towns and villages where putting down your bags feels wonderful, the time of a brief escapade with your sweetheart or family. Our day has come to an end at Le Germain Charlevoix Hotel & Spa, a charming country hotel with an undeniably urban feel. Relax at the Nordique Spa and then a fine meal at Les Labours – a vast kitchen, open on all four sides, where the chef and his team create fresh, seasonal plates before your very eyes.
